Welcome to Phillip Arnold Auctions second auction of 2019 at our regular venue of the Doubletree by Hilton Hotel, Ealing Common W5, starting as usual at 12 noon.

Our February auction showed us that despite the gloomy news surrounding the property market due to Brexit, prime auction lots are still achieving excellent prices, examples being a 2 bedroom property in Worcester on behalf of the Government Legal Department that went for £139,500 off a guide of £100,000 and a two bedroom flat in Palmers Green, London offered on behalf of a charity, that went for £227,000 off a guide of £150,000.

We continue to ensure that our catalogues come to you with real gems; we are being discerning and genuine in this doubtful market to bring you real investment opportunities that will stand the test of time and April catalogue is so full of them that is hard to decide which one to pick out as a star lot but our chosen two which are prime auction lots are:

- Lot 1 – a two bedroom semi-detached property in Guildford in need of complete refurbishment, offered on behalf of the Government Legal Department
- Lot 16 – a rarely available detached house in Uxbridge in a prime location overlooking a common and in need of modernisation throughout, offered on behalf of the Executors

We hope you will enjoy browsing through our lots and look forward to seeing you on Friday 12th April.

Good luck with your bidding whether in the room, on the phone, by proxy or by internet!

IMPORTANT NOTES

This catalogue contains details about properties being sold at auction. Those details are subject to change up to and including the day of the auction. Please check our website regularly at www.philliparnoldauctions.co.uk and look out for any additional materials available on the day of the auction, in order to stay fully informed with the up to date information. The lots offered will contain guide prices and it is important that buyers are aware of the difference that there may be between a guide price and a reserve price.

Guide Price: This is an indication of the seller's current minimum acceptable price at auction. The guide price is given to assist prospective buyers in deciding whether or not to pursue a purchase. It is usual, but not always the case, that a provisional reserve range is agreed between the seller and the auctioneer at the start of marketing. As the reserve is not fixed at this stage and can be adjusted by the seller at any time up to the day of the auction in the light of interest shown during the marketing period, a guide price is issued. This guide price can be shown in the form of a minimum and maximum price range within which an acceptable sale price (reserve) would fall, or as a single price figure within 10% of which the minimum acceptable price (reserve) would fall. A guide price is different to a reserve price (see separate definition). Both the guide price and the reserve price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction.

Reserve Price: The seller's minimum acceptable price at auction and the figure below which the auctioneer cannot sell. The reserve price is not disclosed and remains confidential between the seller and the auctioneer. Both the guide price and the reserve price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction.

Additional fees: Please note that the following additional fees will apply to the purchase of your property:

1. Buyers Premium of £600 inclusive of VAT
2. Other fees as listed within the Special Conditions of Sale that form part of the legal pack which is made available to you prior to auction. You will be expected to sign this document as well as the Sales Memorandum at the time of purchase.
3. Stamp Duty – rates easily available on-line
4. Your solicitor fees and any survey fees
5. Insurance – it is your responsibility from the date of exchange to insure the property purchased.

Money laundering regulations

In order to confirm with the Money Laundering Regulations, all prospective purchasers must be able to verify their identity. The following schedule of documents must be provided to the auctioneers either at the auction or at the point of signing contracts prior or post sale, in order for us to be able to conduct business with you. Each purchaser must provide one original document from the following lists.

LIST A

- Current signed passport
- current UK photocard driving licence
- current full UK driving licence (old version)
- Firearms certificate

LIST B

- Utility bill issued within the last three months (mobile phone bill not acceptable)
- Local authority tax bill (valid for the current year)
- Bank or building society statement (must contain current address)
- The most recent original mortgage statement
- Confirmation from the electoral roll

If you are acting as AGENT, on behalf of another party, the auctioneers will require true certified copies of the buyers identification and identification of yourself as listed above, together with a letter of authority from the principal buyer authorising you to bid on their behalf.

If you are bidding on behalf of a company, the above documentation will be required along with a letter of authority from the said company to purchase on their behalf.

Proxy, telephone and internet bidding

The Auctioneers will accept bids by proxy, telephone or internet. In all cases buyers will be required to fill out the relevant bidding form prior to the auction day.

A deposit cheque will be required to accompany the bidding form and will only be banked in the event that your bid is successful. The cheque should be made payable to the relevant auctioneers and should be left blank or filled in to represent 10% of the bidders maximum bid. Only if the bid is successful will the cheque be completed and presented for payment. The amount shall be for 10% of the purchase price subject to a minimum amount of £2,000. In addition, the buyer's fee of £500 +VAT will also be added. Unsuccessful bidders will have the cheque returned to them or it will be destroyed dependant upon their instructions. The auctioneers will also require identification to accompany the form and cheque in accordance with the money laundering regulations.

Remote bidding forms, together with terms and conditions for submitting bids in this manner, are available by contacting Phillip Arnold Auctions or alternatively can be downloaded from our website.

Notice to prospective buyers

1. The Auctioneers will generally offer the lots in the order as shown in the catalogue, although they reserve the right to amend the order of sale.
2. The addendum is an important document and provides details of amendments to the catalogue and Conditions of Sale. Prospective buyers should ensure that they inspect this document as its contents will form part of the sales contract. Prospective buyers should ensure that they have a copy of the catalogue and addendum prior to bidding and are deemed to have read these documents whether they have done so or not.
3. Phillip Arnold Auctions will always endeavour to inform prospective purchasers of variations to the catalogue, when such changes are brought to their attention. The Auctioneers nor their clients can be held responsible for any losses, damages or abortive costs incurred in respect of lots that are withdrawn or sold prior to auction.
4. Prospective buyers bid on the basis that they have checked the General Conditions of Sale, that are detailed at the back of the catalogue, and the Special Conditions of Sale relating to each individual lot. If there is a conflict between them, the Special Conditions of Sale shall prevail. Details are contained within the legal packs for each lot that are available for inspection at the offices of the Auctioneers or can be downloaded free of charge from the website. Legal documents will also be available in the auction room on the day of the sale.
5. Prospective buyers bid on the basis that they are deemed to have inspected all lots, have made all necessary enquiries and have checked the legal documentation. Buyers are deemed to be satisfied that they fully understand their content. The Auctioneers strongly suggest that buyers take legal and professional advice prior to bidding on any lot. The Auctioneers will make every possible endeavour to provide access to all lots prior to the sale although this can not be guaranteed. The Auctioneers will attempt to answer any queries prior to auction and in the auction room. The Auctioneer will not be able to answer any questions whilst the auction is proceeding.
6. Guide price*: this is an indication of the Seller's current minimum acceptable price at auction. The guide price is given to assist prospective buyers in deciding whether or not to pursue a purchase. It is usual, but not always the case, that a provisional reserve range is agreed between the Seller and the Auctioneer at the start of marketing. As the reserve is not fixed at this stage and can be adjusted by the Seller at any time up to the day of the auction in the light of interest shown during the marketing period, a guide price is issued. This Guide Price can be shown in the form of a minimum and maximum price range within which an acceptable sale price (reserve) would fall, or as a single price figure within 10% of which the minimum acceptable price (reserve) would fall. A Guide Price is different to a Reserve Price (see separate definition). Both the Guide Price and the Reserve Price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction.
7. Reserve Price: The Seller's minimum acceptable price at auction and the figure below which the Auctioneer cannot sell. The Reserve Price is not disclosed and remains confidential between the Seller and the Auctioneer. Both the Guide Price and the Reserve Price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction.
8. On the day of sale it is the bidder's duty to attract the Auctioneer's attention and prospective buyers are therefore advised to bid clearly without delay. Bids may be refused at the Auctioneers discretion and the Auctioneers reserve the right to bid on behalf of the vendor up to the reserve. At the fall of the hammer the successful bidder will be under a binding contract to purchase the property in accordance with the general and special conditions of sale, together with addendum and contents of this notice. The buyer will be required to supply without delay their name and address, solicitors details, identification and deposit. They will then be required to sign the auction memorandum. Should the buyer refuse, the Auctioneer is legally entitled to sign the memorandum on behalf of the buyer or alternatively offer the lot to the under bidder or re-offer to the room and claim any resultant loss against the original buyer. Completion of the sale and payment of the balance of the purchase money is 28 days after the exchange of contracts unless the conditions of sale provide otherwise.
9. A deposit amount of 10% of the selling price (plus VAT where applicable) is required for each lot subject to a minimum of £2,000 unless otherwise stated by the Auctioneer. Payment can be made by bankers draft, building society cheque, company cheque or personal cheque or by debit card with a pin number. Please note we will not accept cash under any circumstances. The Auctioneers only accept deposit cheques on the basis that there are adequate funds in the account on which the cheque is drawn and reserve the right to take any action as appropriate against a purchaser whose cheque is not honoured on first presentation. We can accept credit cards but please be advised that an additional 1.65% will be charged at time of use.
10. A successful purchaser will also be required to pay a Buyer's Administration charge of £600 inclusive of VAT by cheque made payable to Phillip Arnold Auctions.
11. Unless otherwise stated all property is sold subject to a reserve price whether declared or not.
12. Please note that purchasers will not be entitled to keys or access to vacant properties until completion of the sale. If access is required it may be arranged through the relevant Auctioneers with the express permission of the vendor. The buyer will be responsible for insuring the lot that they purchase from exchange of contracts unless the Special Conditions of Sale state otherwise.
13. No representation or warranty is made in respect of the structure of any properties or in relation to their state of repair. The Auctioneers advise that all prospective buyers should arrange for a survey of the particular lot by a professionally qualified person.
14. Unless otherwise provided in the Special Conditions of Sale, all lots are sold exclusive of VAT.
15. If bidding by telephone or internet, the Auctioneers accept no liability for poor signal or connection, or being unable to reach the prospective buyer at the time required.

Common Auction Conditions

Common Auction Conditions (3rd Edition August 2009 – reproduced with the consent of the RICS).

The general conditions (including any extra general conditions) apply to the contract except to the extent that they are varied by special conditions or by an addendum.

INTRODUCTION

The Common Auction Conditions have been produced for real estate auctions in England and Wales to set a common standard across the industry. They are in three sections:

1. Glossary The glossary gives special meanings to certain words used in both sets of conditions.
2. Auction Conduct Conditions The Auction Conduct Conditions govern the relationship between the auctioneer and anyone who has a catalogue, or who attends or bids at the auction. They cannot be changed without the auctioneer's agreement. We recommend that these conditions are set out in a two-part notice to bidders in the auction catalogue, part one containing advisory material – which auctioneers can tailor to their needs – and part two the auction conduct conditions.
3. Sale Conditions The Sale Conditions govern the agreement between each seller and buyer. They include general conditions of sale and template forms of special conditions of sale, tenancy and arrears schedules and a sale memorandum.

Important notice

A prudent buyer will, before bidding for a lot at an auction:

- Take professional advice from a conveyancer and, in appropriate cases, a chartered surveyor and an accountant;
- Read the conditions;
- Inspect the lot;
- Carry out usual searches and make usual enquiries;
- Check the content of all available leases and other documents relating to the lot;
- Check that what is said about the lot in the catalogue is accurate;
- Have finance available for the deposit and purchase price;
- Check whether VAT registration and election is advisable;

The conditions assume that the buyer has acted like a prudent buyer. If you choose to buy a lot without taking these normal precautions you do so at your own risk.

GLOSSARY

This glossary applies to the auction conduct conditions and the sale conditions. Wherever it makes sense:

- singular words can be read as plurals, and plurals as singular words;
- a "person" includes a corporate body;
- words of one gender include the other genders;
- references to legislation are to that legislation as it may have been modified or re-enacted by the date of the auction or the contract date (as applicable); and
- where the following words printed in bold black type appear in bold blue type they have the specified meanings.

Actual completion date The date when completion takes place or is treated as taking place for the purposes of apportionment and calculating interest.

Addendum An amendment or addition to the conditions or to the particulars or to both whether contained in a supplement to the catalogue, a written notice from the auctioneers or an oral announcement at the auction.

AUCTION CONDUCT CONDITIONS

A1 Introduction

A1.1 Words in bold blue type have special meanings, which are defined in the Glossary.

A1.2 The catalogue is issued only on the basis that you accept these auction conduct conditions. They govern our relationship with you and cannot be disappplied or varied by the sale conditions (even by a condition purporting to replace the whole of the Common Auction Conditions). They can be varied only if we agree.

A2 Our role

A2.1 As agents for each seller we have authority to:

- (a) prepare the catalogue from information supplied by or on behalf of each seller;
- (b) offer each lot for sale;
- (c) sell each lot;
- (d) receive and hold deposits;
- (e) sign each sale memorandum; and
- (f) treat a contract as repudiated if the buyer fails to sign a sale memorandum or pay a deposit as required by these auction conduct conditions.

A2.2 Our decision on the conduct of the auction is final.

A2.3 We may cancel the auction, or alter the order in which lots are offered for sale. We may also combine or divide lots. A lot may be sold or withdrawn from sale prior to the auction.

A2.4 You acknowledge that to the extent permitted by law we owe you no duty of care and you have no claim against us for any loss.

A3 Bidding and reserve prices

A3.1 All bids are to be made in pounds sterling exclusive of any applicable VAT.

A3.2 We may refuse to accept a bid. We do not have to explain why.

A3.3 If there is a dispute over bidding we are entitled to resolve it, and our decision is final.

A3.4 Unless stated otherwise each lot is subject to a reserve price (which may be fixed just before the lot is offered for sale). If no bid equals or exceeds that reserve price the lot will be withdrawn from the auction.

A3.5 Where there is a reserve price the seller may bid (or ask us or another agent to bid on the seller's behalf) up to the reserve price but may not make a bid equal to or exceeding the reserve price. You accept that it is possible that all bids up to the reserve price are bids made by or on behalf of the seller.

A3.6 Where a guide price (or range of prices) is given that guide is the minimum price at which, or range of prices within which, the seller might be prepared to sell at the date of the guide price. But guide prices may change. The last published guide price will normally be at or above any reserve price, but not always – as the seller may fix the final reserve price just before bidding commences.

A4 The particulars and other information

A4.1 We have taken reasonable care to prepare particulars that correctly describe each lot. The particulars are based on information supplied by or on behalf of the seller. You need to check that the information in the particulars is correct.

A4.2 If the special conditions do not contain a description of the lot, or simply refer to the relevant lot number, you take the risk that the description contained in the particulars is incomplete or inaccurate, as the particulars have not been prepared by a conveyancer and are not intended to form part of a legal contract.

A4.3 The particulars and the sale conditions may change prior to the auction and it is your responsibility to check that you have the correct versions.

A4.4 If we provide information, or a copy of a document, provided by others we do so only on the basis that we are not responsible for the accuracy of that information or document.

A5 The contract

A5.1 A successful bid is one we accept as such (normally on the fall of the hammer). This condition A5 applies to you if you make the successful bid for a lot.

A5.2 You are obliged to buy the lot on the terms of the sale memorandum at the price you bid plus VAT (if applicable).

A5.3 You must before leaving the auction:

- (a) provide all information we reasonably need from you to enable us to complete the sale

	memorandum (including proof of your identity if required by us); <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • (b) sign the completed sale memorandum; and • (c) pay the deposit.
A5.4	If you do not we may either: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • (a) as agent for the seller treat that failure as your repudiation of the contract and offer the lot for sale again: the seller may then have a claim against you for breach of contract; or • (b) sign the sale memorandum on your behalf.
A5.5	The deposit: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • (a) is to be held as stakeholder where VAT would be chargeable on the deposit were it to be held as agent for the seller, but otherwise is to be held as stated in the sale conditions; and • (b) must be paid in pounds sterling by cheque or by bankers' draft made payable to us on an approved financial institution. The extra auction conduct conditions may state if we accept any other form of payment.
A5.6	We may retain the sale memorandum signed by or on behalf of the seller until the deposit has been received in cleared funds.
A5.7	If the buyer does not comply with its obligations under the contract then: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • (a) you are personally liable to buy the lot even if you are acting as an agent; and • (b) you must indemnify the seller in respect of any loss the seller incurs as a result of the buyer's default.
A5.8	Where the buyer is a company you warrant that the buyer is properly constituted and able to buy the lot.

Words that are capitalised have special meanings, which are defined in the Glossary.

The general conditions (including any extra general conditions) apply to the contract except to the extent that they are varied by special conditions or by an addendum.

G1. The lot

G1.1	The lot (including any rights to be granted or reserved, and any exclusions from it) is described in the special conditions, or if not so described the lot is that referred to in the sale memorandum.
G1.2	The lot is sold subject to any tenancies disclosed by the special conditions, but otherwise with vacant possession on completion.
G1.3	The lot is sold subject to all matters contained or referred to in the documents, but excluding any financial charges: these the seller must discharge on or before completion.
G1.4	The lot is also sold subject to such of the following as may affect it, whether they arise before or after the contract date and whether or not they are disclosed by the seller or are apparent from inspection of the lot or from the documents: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • (a) matters registered or capable of registration as local land charges; • (b) matters registered or capable of registration by any competent authority or under the provisions of any statute; • (c) notices, orders, demands, proposals and requirements of any competent authority; • (d) charges, notices, orders, restrictions, agreements and other matters relating to town and country planning, highways or public health; • (e) rights, easements, quasi-easements, and wayleaves; • (f) outgoing and other liabilities; • (g) any interest which overrides, within the meaning of the Land Registration Act 2002; • (h) matters that ought to be disclosed by the searches and enquiries a prudent buyer would make, whether or not the buyer has made them; and • (i) anything the seller does not and could not reasonably know about.
G1.5	Where anything subject to which the lot is sold would expose the seller to liability the buyer is to comply with it and indemnify the seller against that liability.
G1.6	The seller must notify the buyer of any notices, orders, demands, proposals and requirements of any competent authority of which it learns after the contract date but the buyer must comply with them and keep the seller indemnified.
G1.7	The lot does not include any tenant's or trade fixtures or fittings.

G1.10	The buyer is not to rely on the information contained in the particulars but may rely on the seller's conveyancer's written replies to preliminary enquiries to the extent stated in those replies.

G2. Deposit

G2.1	The amount of the deposit is the greater of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • (a) any minimum deposit stated in the auction conduct conditions (or the total price, if this is less than that minimum); and • (b) 10% of the price (exclusive of any VAT on the price).
G2.2	The deposit <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • (a) must be paid in pounds sterling by cheque or banker's draft drawn on an approved financial institution (or by any other means of payment that the auctioneers may accept); and • (b) is to be held as stakeholder unless the auction conduct conditions provide that it is to be held as agent for the seller.
G2.3	Where the auctioneers hold the deposit as stakeholder they are authorised to release it (and interest on it if applicable) to the seller on completion or, if completion does not take place, to the person entitled to it under the sale conditions.
G2.4	If a cheque for all or part of the deposit is not cleared on first presentation the seller may treat the contract as at an end and bring a claim against the buyer for breach of contract.
G2.5	Interest earned on the deposit belongs to the seller unless the sale conditions provide otherwise.
G3.	Between contract and completion
G3.1	Unless the special conditions state otherwise, the seller is to insure the lot from and including the contract date to completion and: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • (a) produce to the buyer on request all relevant insurance details; • (b) pay the premiums when due; • (c) if the buyer so requests, and pays any additional premium, use reasonable endeavours to increase the sum insured or make other changes to the policy; • (d) at the request of the buyer use reasonable endeavours to have the buyer's interest noted on the policy if it does not cover a contracting purchaser; • (e) unless otherwise agreed, cancel the insurance at completion, apply for a refund of premium and (subject to the rights of any tenant or other third party) pay that refund to the buyer; and • (f) (subject to the rights of any tenant or other third party) hold on trust for the buyer any insurance payments that the seller receives in respect of loss or damage arising after the contract date or assign to the buyer the benefit of any claim; and the buyer must on completion reimburse to the seller the cost of that insurance (to the extent not already paid by the buyer or a tenant or other third party) for the period from and including the contract date to completion.
G3.2	No damage to or destruction of the lot nor any deterioration in its condition, however caused, entitles the buyer to any reduction in price, or to delay completion, or to refuse to complete.
G3.3	Section 47 of the Law of Property Act 1925 does not apply.
G3.4	Unless the buyer is already lawfully in occupation of the lot the buyer has no right to enter into occupation prior to completion.
G4.	Title and identity
G4.1	Unless condition G4.2 applies, the buyer accepts the title of the seller to the lot as at the contract date and may raise no requisition or objection except in relation to any matter that occurs after the contract date.
