Welcome to Phillip Arnold Auctions sixth auction of 2019 at our regular venue of the Doubletree by Hilton Hotel, Ealing Common W5, starting as usual at 12 noon.

Our Northern theme continues into this November catalogue with some excellent investment properties in Hull, interesting new builds in the beautiful Malvern Hills and an amazing development opportunity in Wolverhampton with planning permission to build 3 separate properties on the site.

Closer to home we have a unique self-contained business premises just outside of Uxbridge with ample parking that is already attracting a great deal of interest and a quirky flat within a converted church in W6 on behalf of the Fixed Charge Receivers.

We hope you will enjoy browsing through our lots and look forward to seeing you on Friday 1st November.

Good luck with your bidding whether in the room, on the phone, by proxy or by internet.

IMPORTANT NOTES

This catalogue contains details about properties being sold at auction. Those details are subject to change up to and including the day of the auction. Please check our website regularly at www.philliparnoldauctions.co.uk and look out for any additional materials available on the day of the auction, in order to stay fully informed with the up to date information. The lots offered will contain guide prices and it is important that buyers are aware of the difference that there may be between a guide price and a reserve price.

Guide Price: This is an indication of the seller's current minimum acceptable price at auction. The guide price is given to assist prospective buyers in deciding whether or not to pursue a purchase. It is usual, but not always the case, that a provisional reserve range is agreed between the seller and the auctioneer at the start of marketing. As the reserve is not fixed at this stage and can be adjusted by the seller at any time up to the day of the auction in the light of interest shown during the marketing period, a guide price is issued. This guide price can be shown in the form of a minimum and maximum price range within which an acceptable sale price (reserve) would fall, or as a single price figure within 10% of which the minimum acceptable price (reserve) would fall. A guide price is different to a reserve price (see separate definition). Both the guide price and the reserve price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction.

Reserve Price: The seller's minimum acceptable price at auction and the figure below which the auctioneer cannot sell. The reserve price is not disclosed and remains confidential between the seller and the auctioneer. Both the guide price and the reserve price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction.

Additional fees: Please note that the following additional fees will apply to the purchase of your property:

1. Buyer's Premium of £600 inclusive of VAT
2. Other fees as listed within the Special Conditions of Sale that form part of the legal pack which is made available to you prior to auction. You will be expected to sign this document as well as the Sales Memorandum at the time of purchase.
3. Stamp Duty – rates easily available on-line
4. Your solicitor fees and any survey fees
5. Insurance – it is your responsibility from the date of exchange to insure the property purchased.

Money laundering regulations

In order to confirm with the Money Laundering Regulations, all prospective purchasers must be able to verify their identity. The following schedule of documents must be provided to the auctioneers either at the auction or at the point of signing contracts prior or post sale, in order for us to be able to conduct business with you. Each purchaser must provide one original document from the following lists.

LIST A

- Current signed passport
- current UK photocard driving licence
- current full UK driving licence (old version)
- Firearms certificate

LIST B

- Utility bill issued within the last three months (mobile phone bill not acceptable)
- Local authority tax bill (valid for the current year)
- Bank or building society statement (must contain current address)
- The most recent original mortgage statement
- Confirmation from the electoral roll

If you are acting as AGENT, on behalf of another party, the auctioneers will require true certified copies of the buyers identification and identification of yourself as listed above, together with a letter of authority from the principal buyer authorising you to bid on their behalf.

If you are bidding on behalf of a company, the above documentation will be required along with a letter of authority from the said company to purchase on their behalf.

Proxy, telephone and internet bidding

The Auctioneers will accept bids by proxy, telephone or internet. In all cases buyers will be required to fill out the relevant bidding form prior to the auction day.

A deposit cheque will be required to accompany the bidding form and will only be banked in the event that your bid is successful. The cheque should be made payable to the relevant auctioneers and should be left blank or filled in to represent 10% of the bidders maximum bid. Only if the bid is successful will the cheque be completed and presented for payment. The amount shall be for 10% of the purchase price subject to a minimum amount of £3,000. In addition, the buyer's fee of £600 inclusive of VAT will also be added. Unsuccessful bidders will have the cheque returned to them or it will be destroyed dependant upon their instructions. The auctioneers will also require identification to accompany the form and cheque in accordance with the money laundering regulations.

Remote bidding forms, together with terms and conditions for submitting bids in this manner, are available by contacting Phillip Arnold Auctions or alternatively can be downloaded from our website.

Notice to prospective buyers

1. The Auctioneers will generally offer the lots in the order as shown in the catalogue, although they reserve the right to amend the order of sale.
2. The addendum is an important document and provides details of amendments to the catalogue and Conditions of Sale. Prospective buyers should ensure that they inspect this document as its contents will form part of the sales contract. Prospective buyers should ensure that they have a copy of the catalogue and addendum prior to bidding and are deemed to have read these documents whether they have done so or not.
3. Phillip Arnold Auctions will always endeavour to inform prospective purchasers of variations to the catalogue, when such changes are brought to their attention. The Auctioneers nor their clients can be held responsible for any losses, damages or abortive costs incurred in respect of lots that are withdrawn or sold prior to auction.
4. Prospective buyers bid on the basis that they have checked the General Conditions of Sale, that are detailed at the back of the catalogue, and the Special Conditions of Sale relating to each individual lot. If there is a conflict between them, the Special Conditions of Sale shall prevail. Details are contained within the legal packs for each lot that are available for inspection at the offices of the Auctioneers or can be downloaded free of charge from the website. Legal documents will also be available in the auction room on the day of the sale.
5. Prospective buyers bid on the basis that they are deemed to have inspected all lots, have made all necessary enquiries and have checked the legal documentation. Buyers are deemed to be satisfied that they fully understand their content. The Auctioneers strongly suggest that buyers take legal and professional advice prior to bidding on any lot. The Auctioneers will make every possible endeavour to provide access to all lots prior to the sale although this can not be guaranteed. The Auctioneers will attempt to answer any queries prior to auction and in the auction room. The Auctioneer will not be able to answer any questions whilst the auction is proceeding.
6. Guide price*: this is an indication of the Seller's current minimum acceptable price at auction. The guide price is given to assist prospective buyers in deciding whether or not to pursue a purchase. It is usual, but not always the case, that a provisional reserve range is agreed between the Seller and the Auctioneer at the start of marketing. As the reserve is not fixed at this stage and can be adjusted by the Seller at any time up to the day of the auction in the light of interest shown during the marketing period, a guide price is issued. This Guide Price can be shown in the form of a minimum and maximum price range within which an acceptable sale price (reserve) would fall, or as a single price figure within 10% of which the minimum acceptable price (reserve) would fall. A Guide Price is different to a Reserve Price (see separate definition). Both the Guide Price and the Reserve Price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction.
7. Reserve Price: The Seller's minimum acceptable price at auction and the figure below which the Auctioneer cannot sell. The Reserve Price is not disclosed and remains confidential between the Seller and the Auctioneer. Both the Guide Price and the Reserve Price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction.
8. On the day of sale it is the bidder's duty to attract the Auctioneer's attention and prospective buyers are therefore advised to bid clearly without delay. Bids may be refused at the Auctioneers discretion and the Auctioneers reserve the right to bid on behalf of the vendor up to the reserve. At the fall of the hammer the successful bidder will be under a binding contract to purchase the property in accordance with the general and special conditions of sale, together with addendum and contents of this notice. The buyer will be required to supply without delay their name and address, solicitors details, identification and deposit. They will then be required to sign the auction memorandum. Should the buyer refuse, the Auctioneer is legally entitled to sign the memorandum on behalf of the buyer or alternatively offer the lot to the under bidder or re-offer to the room and claim any resultant loss against the original buyer. Completion of the sale and payment of the balance of the purchase money is 28 days after the exchange of contracts unless the conditions of sale provide otherwise.
9. A deposit amount of 10% of the selling price (plus VAT where applicable) is required for each lot subject to a minimum of £3,000 unless otherwise stated by the Auctioneer. Payment can be made by bankers draft, building society cheque, company cheque or personal cheque or by debit card with a pin number. Please note we will not accept cash under any circumstances. The Auctioneers only accept deposit cheques on the basis that there are adequate funds in the account on which the cheque is drawn and reserve the right to take any action as appropriate against a purchaser whose cheque is not honoured on first presentation. We can accept credit cards but please be advised that an additional 1.65% will be charged at time of use.
10. A successful purchaser will also be required to pay a Buyer's Administration charge of £600 inclusive of VAT by cheque made payable to Phillip Arnold Auctions.
11. Unless otherwise stated all property is sold subject to a reserve price whether declared or not.
12. Please note that purchasers will not be entitled to keys or access to vacant properties until completion of the sale. If access is required it may be arranged through the relevant Auctioneers with the express permission of the vendor. The buyer will be responsible for insuring the lot that they purchase from exchange of contracts unless the Special Conditions of Sale state otherwise.
13. No representation or warranty is made in respect of the structure of any properties or in relation to their state of repair. The Auctioneers advise that all prospective buyers should arrange for a survey of the particular lot by a professionally qualified person.
14. Unless otherwise provided in the Special Conditions of Sale, all lots are sold exclusive of VAT.
15. If bidding by telephone or internet, the Auctioneers accept no liability for poor signal or connection, or being unable to reach the prospective buyer at the time required.

Common Auction Conditions

Common Auction Conditions (3rd Edition August 2009 – reproduced with the consent of the RICS).

The general conditions (including any extra general conditions) apply to the contract except to the extent that they are varied by special conditions or by an addendum.

INTRODUCTION

The Common Auction Conditions have been produced for real estate auctions in England and Wales to set a common standard across the industry. They are in three sections:

1. Glossary The glossary gives special meanings to certain words used in both sets of conditions.
2. Auction Conduct Conditions The Auction Conduct Conditions govern the relationship between the auctioneer and anyone who has a catalogue, or who attends or bids at the auction. They cannot be changed without the auctioneer's agreement. We recommend that these conditions are set out in a two-part notice to bidders in the auction catalogue, part one containing advisory material – which auctioneers can tailor to their needs – and part two the auction conduct conditions.
3. Sale Conditions The Sale Conditions govern the agreement between each seller and buyer. They include general conditions of sale and template forms of special conditions of sale, tenancy and arrears schedules and a sale memorandum.

Important notice

A prudent buyer will, before bidding for a lot at an auction:

- Take professional advice from a conveyancer and, in appropriate cases, a chartered surveyor and an accountant;
- Read the conditions;
- Inspect the lot;
- Carry out usual searches and make usual enquiries;
- Check the content of all available leases and other documents relating to the lot;
- Check that what is said about the lot in the catalogue is accurate;
- Have finance available for the deposit and purchase price;
- Check whether VAT registration and election is advisable;

The conditions assume that the buyer has acted like a prudent buyer. If you choose to buy a lot without taking these normal precautions you do so at your own risk.

GLOSSARY

This glossary applies to the auction conduct conditions and the sale conditions. Wherever it makes sense:

- singular words can be read as plurals, and plurals as singular words;
- a "person" includes a corporate body;
- words of one gender include the other genders;
- references to legislation are to that legislation as it may have been modified or re-enacted by the date of the auction or the contract date (as applicable); and
- where the following words printed in bold black type appear in bold blue type they have the specified meanings.

Actual completion date The date when completion takes place or is treated as taking place for the purposes of apportionment and calculating interest.

Addendum An amendment or addition to the conditions or to the particulars or to both whether contained in a supplement to the catalogue, a written notice from the auctioneers or an oral announcement at the auction.

Agreed completion date Subject to condition G9.3: (a) the date specified in the special conditions; or (b) if no date is specified, 20 business days after the contract date; but if that date is not a business day the first subsequent business day.

Approved financial institution Any bank or building society that has signed up to the Banking Code or Business Banking Code or is otherwise acceptable to the auctioneers.

Arrears Arrears of rent and other sums due under the tenancies and still outstanding on the actual completion date.

Arrears schedule The arrears schedule (if any) forming part of the special conditions.

Auction The auction advertised in the catalogue.

Auction conduct conditions The conditions so headed, including any extra auction conduct conditions.

Auctioneers The auctioneers at the auction.

Business day Any day except (a) a Saturday or a Sunday; (b) a bank holiday in England and Wales; or (c) Good Friday or Christmas Day.

Buyer The person who agrees to buy the lot or, if applicable, that person's personal representatives: if two or more are jointly the buyer their obligations can be enforced against them jointly or against each of them separately.

Catalogue The catalogue to which the conditions refer including any supplement to it.

Completion Unless otherwise agreed between seller and buyer (or their conveyancers) the occasion when both seller and buyer have complied with their obligations under the contract and the balance of the price is unconditionally received in the seller's conveyancer's client account.

Condition One of the auction conduct conditions or sales conditions.

Contract The contract by which the seller agrees to sell and the buyer agrees to buy the lot.

Contract date The date of the auction or, if the lot is not sold at the auction: (a) the date of the sale memorandum signed by both the seller and buyer; or (b) if contracts are exchanged, the date of exchange. If exchange is not effected in person or by an irrevocable agreement to exchange made by telephone, fax or electronic mail the date of exchange is the date on which both parts have been signed and posted or otherwise placed beyond normal retrieval.

Documents Documents of title (including, if title is registered, the entries on the register and the title plan) and other documents listed or referred to in the special conditions relating to the lot.

Financial charge A charge to secure a loan or other financial indebtedness (not including a rentcharge).

General conditions That part of the sale conditions so headed, including any extra general conditions.

Interest rate If not specified in the special conditions, 4% above the base rate from time to time of Barclays Bank plc. (The interest rate will also apply to judgment debts, if applicable.)

Lot Each separate property described in the catalogue or (as the case may be) the property that the seller has agreed to sell and the buyer to buy (including chattels, if any).

Old arrears Arrears due under any of the tenancies that are not "new tenancies" as defined by the Landlord and Tenant (Covenants) Act 1995.

Particulars The section of the catalogue that contains descriptions of each lot (as varied by any addendum).

Practitioner An insolvency practitioner for the purposes of the Insolvency Act 1986 (or, in relation to jurisdictions outside the United Kingdom, any similar official).

Price The price that the buyer agrees to pay for the lot.

Ready to complete Ready, willing and able to complete: if completion would enable the seller to discharge all financial charges secured on the lot that have to be discharged by completion, then those outstanding financial charges do not prevent the seller from being ready to complete.

Sale conditions The general conditions as varied by any special conditions or addendum.

Sale memorandum The form so headed (whether or not set out in the catalogue) in which the terms of the contract for the sale of the lot are recorded.

Seller The person selling the lot. If two or more are jointly the seller their obligations can be enforced against them jointly or against each of them separately.

Special conditions Those of the sale conditions so headed that relate to the lot.

Tenancies Tenancies, leases, licences to occupy and agreements for lease and any documents varying or supplemental to them.

Tenancy schedule The tenancy schedule (if any) forming part of the special conditions.

Transfer Transfer includes a conveyance or assignment (and "to transfer" includes "to convey" or "to assign").

TUPE The Transfer of Undertakings (Protection of Employment) Regulations 2006.

VAT Value Added Tax or other tax of a similar nature.

VAT option An option to tax.

We (and us and our) The auctioneers.

You (and your) Someone who has a copy of the catalogue or who attends or bids at the auction, whether or not a buyer.

AUCTION CONDUCT CONDITIONS

A1 Introduction

A1.1 Words in bold blue type have special meanings, which are defined in the Glossary.

A1.2 The catalogue is issued only on the basis that you accept these auction conduct conditions. They govern our relationship with you and cannot be disappplied or varied by the sale conditions (even by a condition purporting to replace the whole of the Common Auction Conditions). They can be varied only if we agree.

A2 Our role

A2.1 As agents for each seller we have authority to:

- (a) prepare the catalogue from information supplied by or on behalf of each seller;
- (b) offer each lot for sale;
- (c) sell each lot;
- (d) receive and hold deposits;
- (e) sign each sale memorandum; and
- (f) treat a contract as repudiated if the buyer fails to sign a sale memorandum or pay a deposit as required by these auction conduct conditions.

A2.2 Our decision on the conduct of the auction is final.

A2.3 We may cancel the auction, or alter the order in which lots are offered for sale. We may also combine or divide lots. A lot may be sold or withdrawn from sale prior to the auction.

A2.4 You acknowledge that to the extent permitted by law we owe you no duty of care and you have no claim against us for any loss.

A3 Bidding and reserve prices

A3.1 All bids are to be made in pounds sterling exclusive of any applicable VAT.

A3.2 We may refuse to accept a bid. We do not have to explain why.

A3.3 If there is a dispute over bidding we are entitled to resolve it, and our decision is final.

A3.4 Unless stated otherwise each lot is subject to a reserve price (which may be fixed just before the lot is offered for sale). If no bid equals or exceeds that reserve price the lot will be withdrawn from the auction.

A3.5 Where there is a reserve price the seller may bid (or ask us or another agent to bid on the seller's behalf) up to the reserve price but may not make a bid equal to or exceeding the reserve price. You accept that it is possible that all bids up to the reserve price are bids made by or on behalf of the seller.

A3.6 Where a guide price (or range of prices) is given that guide is the minimum price at which, or range of prices within which, the seller might be prepared to sell at the date of the guide price. But guide prices may change. A4 The particulars and other information

A4.1 We have taken reasonable care to prepare particulars that correctly describe each lot. The particulars are based on information supplied by or on behalf of the seller. You need to check that the information in the particulars is correct.

A4.2 If the special conditions do not contain a description of the lot, or simply refer to the relevant lot number, you take the risk that the description contained in the particulars is incomplete or inaccurate, as the particulars have not been prepared by a conveyancer and are not intended to form part of a legal contract.

A4.3 The particulars and the sale conditions may change prior to the auction and it is your responsibility to check that you have the correct versions.

A4.4 If we provide information, or a copy of a document, provided by others we do so only on the basis that we are not responsible for the accuracy of that information or document.

A5 The contract

A5.1 A successful bid is one we accept as such (normally on the fall of the hammer). This condition A5 applies to you if you make the successful bid for a lot.

A5.5	The deposit: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • (a) is to be held as stakeholder where VAT would be chargeable on the deposit were it to be held as agent for the seller, but otherwise is to be held as stated in the sale conditions; and • (b) must be paid in pounds sterling by cheque or by bankers' draft made payable to us on an approved financial institution. The extra auction conduct conditions may state if we accept any other form of payment.
A5.6	We may retain the sale memorandum signed by or on behalf of the seller until the deposit has been received in cleared funds.
A5.7	If the buyer does not comply with its obligations under the contract then: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • (a) you are personally liable to buy the lot even if you are acting as an agent; and • (b) you must indemnify the seller in respect of any loss the seller incurs as a result of the buyer's default.
A5.8	Where the buyer is a company you warrant that the buyer is properly constituted and able to buy the lot. the expenditure incurred in respect of the period before actual completion date and the buyer must pay the expenditure incurred in respect of the period after actual completion date. Any necessary monetary adjustment is to be made within five business days of the seller providing the service charge account to the buyer.

- G22.6 If the seller holds any reserve or sinking fund on account of future service charge expenditure or a depreciation fund:
- (a) the seller must pay it (including any interest earned on it) to the buyer on completion; and
 - (b) the buyer must covenant with the seller to hold it in accordance with the terms of the tenancies and to indemnify the seller if it does not do so.
- G23. Rent reviews
- G23.1 This condition G23 applies where the lot is sold subject to a tenancy under which a rent review due on or before the actual completion date has not been agreed or determined.
- G23.2 The seller may continue negotiations or rent review proceedings up to the actual completion date but may not agree the level of the revised rent or commence rent review proceedings without the written consent of the buyer, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed.
- G23.3 Following completion the buyer must complete rent review negotiations or proceedings as soon as reasonably practicable but may not agree the level of the revised rent without the written consent of the seller, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed.
- G23.4 The seller must promptly:
- (a) give to the buyer full details of all rent review negotiations and proceedings, including copies of all correspondence and other papers; and
 - (b) use all reasonable endeavours to substitute the buyer for the seller in any rent review proceedings.
- G23.5 The seller and the buyer are to keep each other informed of the progress of the rent review and have regard to any proposals the other makes in relation to it.
- G23.6 When the rent review has been agreed or determined the buyer must account to the seller for any increased rent and interest recovered from the tenant that relates to the seller's period of ownership within five business days of receipt of cleared funds.
- G23.7 If a rent review is agreed or determined before completion but the increased rent and any interest recoverable from the tenant has not been received by completion the increased rent and any interest recoverable is to be treated as arrears.
- G23.8 The seller and the buyer are to bear their own costs in relation to rent review negotiations and proceedings.
- G24. Tenancy renewals
- G24.1 This condition G24 applies where the tenant under a tenancy has the right to remain in occupation under part II of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1954 (as amended) and references to notices and proceedings are to notices and proceedings under that Act.
- G24.2 Where practicable, without exposing the seller to liability or penalty, the seller must not without the written consent of the buyer (which the buyer must not unreasonably withhold or delay) serve or respond to any notice or begin or continue any proceedings.
- G24.3 If the seller receives a notice the seller must send a copy to the buyer within five business days and as the buyer reasonably directs in relation to it.
- G24.4 Following completion the buyer must:
- (a) with the co-operation of the seller take immediate steps to substitute itself as a party to any proceedings;
 - (b) use all reasonable endeavours to conclude any proceedings or negotiations for the renewal of the tenancy and the determination of any interim rent as soon as reasonably practicable at the best rent or rents reasonably obtainable; and
 - (c) if any increased rent is recovered from the tenant (whether as interim rent or under the renewed tenancy) account to the seller for the part of that increase that relates to the seller's period of ownership of the lot within five business days of receipt of cleared funds.
- G24.5 The seller and the buyer are to bear their own costs in relation to the renewal of the tenancy and any proceedings relating to this.
- G25. Warranties
- G25.1 Available warranties are listed in the special conditions.
- G25.2 Where a warranty is assignable the seller must:
- (a) on completion assign it to the buyer and give notice of assignment to the person who gave the warranty; and
 - (b) apply for (and the seller and the buyer must use all reasonable endeavours to obtain) any consent to assign that is required. If consent has not been obtained by completion the warranty must be assigned within five business days after the consent has been obtained.

- G25.3 If a warranty is not assignable the seller must after completion:
- (a) hold the warranty on trust for the buyer; and
 - (b) at the buyer's cost comply with such of the lawful instructions of the buyer in relation to the warranty as do not place the seller in breach of its terms or expose the seller to any liability or penalty.
- G26. No assignment
- The buyer must not assign, mortgage or otherwise transfer or part with the whole or any part of the buyer's interest under this contract.
- G27. Registration at the Land Registry
- G27.1 This condition G27.1 applies where the lot is leasehold and its sale either triggers first registration or is a registrable disposition. The buyer must at its own expense and as soon as practicable:
- (a) procure that it becomes registered at Land Registry as proprietor of the lot;
 - (b) procure that all rights granted and reserved by the lease under which the lot is held are properly noted against the affected titles; and
