Terraced cottage in need of complete updating

This centre terraced turn of the century cottage is built of traditional construction and offers two bedroom accommodation. The property is in need of total and complete modernisation and is sold with full vacant possession. Other properties in the vicinity appear to have created loft rooms, although any intending purchaser should make their own enquiries in this regard. The property is sold with the benefit of full vacant possession. Ridley Avenue is situated within walking distance of Northfields underground station and local shopping and bus facilities. This property will be of interest to developers and owner/occupiers.
