FREEHOLD INVESTMENT INCLUDING SHORT LEASE FLAT AND A THREE BEDROOM VACANT FLAT

This attractive turn of the century terraced dwelling consists of a pair of converted flats. The ground floor has been sold on a long lease and has 48 years unexpired. The first floor is a vacant three bedroom flat in need of some updating although it does benefit from gas fired central heating and double glazing. This flat is fully vacant and offers scope to extend into the loft space subject to obtaining any necessary planning consent that may be required. The property is situated within walking distance of Kensal Rise and Kensal Green Stations as well as local shops and bus connections. Good road links serve the area providing access into Central London. This lot offers excellent investment potential
